FORWARD

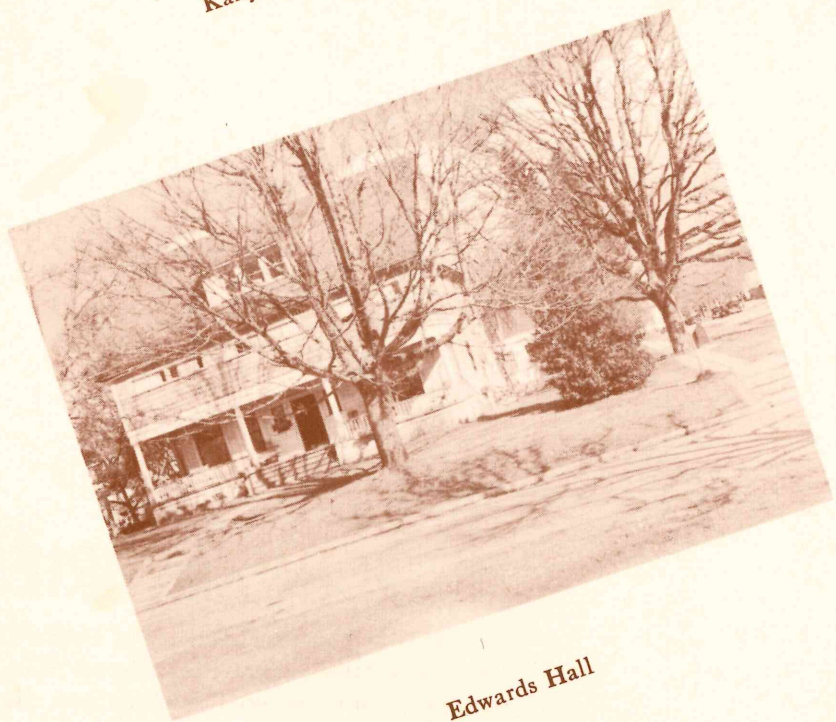

With this 1947 L'Ami we successfully complete the fifty-sixth year of existence for Pacific College. It has prospered under Divine direction and Christian leadership.

Recollections will be many and varied of the outstanding activities held on campus. May this book help to keep alive in our memory the good times spent at Pacific College. To you we present this book of memories for 1946-1947.

Your 1947 L'Ami

Canyon Hall

Edwards Hall

Hoover Hall

DORMITORIES

It is here that the majority of Pacific College students find fellowship together. Hoover Hall, newly remodeled, houses the Pacific College men. Canyon Hall and Edwards Hall both belong to the women students.

It is in these halls that the students learn to know each other.

Professor Knight—known to the fellows as “Pop”—is governor of the boys dormitory. Mrs. Jessie Boyes—matron at Edwards Hall and Miss Helen Willcuts—matron at Canyon Hall are truly friends to their girls.

DEDICATION

To you, quiet, efficient, Mr. Weesner, we take pleasure in dedicating this L'Ami of 1947.

We take this way to thank you for the many kind deeds—some known, many unknown—that you have done for Pacific in your thirty-eight years of service.

IN MEMORIAM

Imogene Degner, born July 4, 1926, and died as a result of an automobile accident on July 9, 1946.

Imogene was not just another student body member, but she was outstanding in all she undertook to do. 1946 found her editor of the Crescent. She had been chosen to fill the place of editor for this 1947 L'Ami.

More than being outstanding in school activities, Imogene always lead a consistent and outstanding Christian life. In all ways Christ was uppermost in her life. She radiated Christ at home, at school and at work. She lived to serve her Christ.

We pause in the world of rush to remember our classmate and friend—IMOGENE DEGNER.

OUR PRESIDENT

Pacific College is now completing fifty-six years of continuous service to students. In many ways this year has been outstanding. All records have been broken for enrollment. Our student body was 70 per cent larger than last year and 26 per cent larger than the highest previous all-time record. This year for the first time, our dormitory facilities were crowded to the limit. For the first time we have had housing for the veterans and their families. A new library has been erected on the campus, and we have been able to use our new gymnasium, which is one of the finest in Oregon. These developments and many more which we might mention, are not ends in themselves but merely evidences of greater things hoped for.

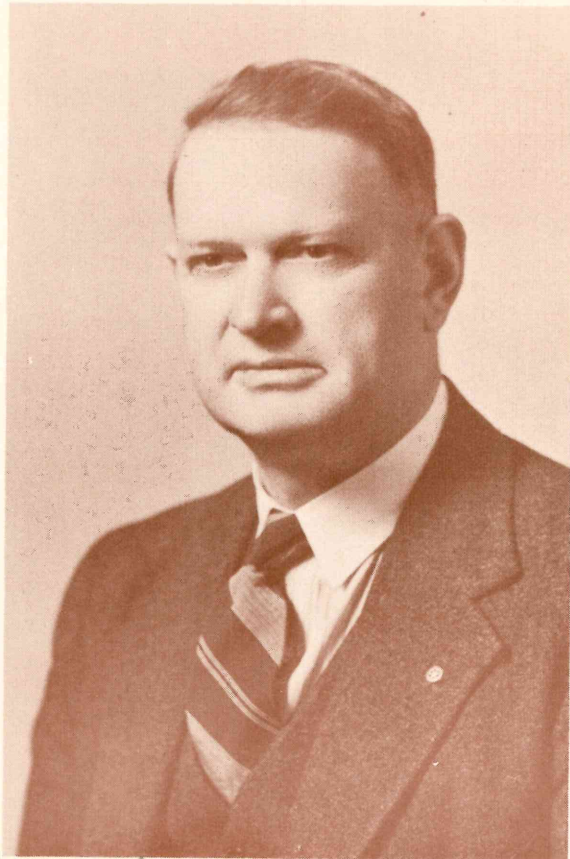

Along with our physical growth we should strive for a spiritual and mental awakening. Unprecedented problems face our generation which call for unprecedented leadership. Our way of life, and perhaps civilization itself, is threatened. Certainly the first preparation that Christian education has to offer is demanded of us today.

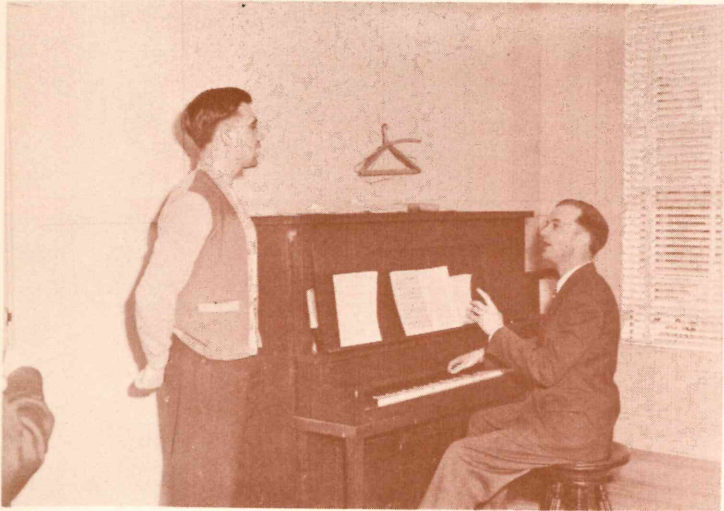

This year marks the end of my close association with Pacific College. It has been by good fortune to be associated with this institution either as student, faculty-member, or president for twenty-three years. During this period I have known many wonderful men and women who have gone from Pacific to places of great usefulness in the world. They have set a standard of achievement, which you must raise even higher.

To every member of this student body, I take this opportunity to extend my sincerest greetings and best wishes for the coming year.

Sincerely,

EMMETT W. GULLEY,
President.

These are the men and women that serve us as teachers in classroom lessons and as counselors in our lessons of life—our faculty. To these men and women we the students give our sincere thanks for their willingness to give of their time and effort to serve our needs.

The work of the art department consists of chalk drawings to be used for lecture and church illustration work. The beginning class second semester did extensive work in still life drawing.

The aims of the Art Department are to turn out workers for D. V. B. S., Sunday School, and Child Evangelism. Next year the department is planning to secure materials and redecorate the studio.

Breaking all tradition the Pacific College Student Body voted to make their May Day an annual affair. Chosen by the men students to rule over the affair was Vera Jones of Newberg, Oregon. Cardinal was Claude Lewis of Springbrook, Oregon. Both were members of the Senior class. Members of the court were Donna Heacock, Keith Williams, Pauline Ireland, Glenn Koch, Barbara Magee, Roger Minthorne, Eleanor Swanson, and Floyd Brown, Jr.

Highlights of the day included a May Breakfast under the sponsorship of the S.C.U. A tennis tournament in the morning determined the school championship.

Returning to pre-war days the afternoon was highlighted with a parade. Most of the campus organizations entered colorful floats. Following the parade was the coronation of Queen Vera I.

Featured in the evening program was Diyonna Schweitzer as Hulda in the operetta "Hulda of Holland".

GREENLEAF FRIENDS CHURCH

GREENLEAF, IDAHO

With a membership of over 500, reaching a wide area of this section of productive Canyon County, this church strives to challenge men for Christ.

The large group of fine young people in the Academy, and loyal attendance of a church-conscious community provide an inspiration to service and worship.

It is the ideal of the church that like St. Paul we shall be "determined to know naught among you save Christ—and Him crucified."

Dedicated to the maintenance of the true, time-proven ideal of the Society of Friends and their testimony to the world.
